¹ If interested in teaching Indoor Cycling, Barre, TRX or Bollywood, then follow this pathway as a starting point.

² You must complete a specialty module and pass your instructor competency exam within one-year of registering as a fitness student.

³ MUST TAKE COURSE CERTIFIED THROUGH www.bcrpa.bc.ca. The BCRPA website lists the programs that are approved. If you have taken a course that is not approved you will need to upgrade your qualifications through one of the recognized organizations.

⁴ Once you have completed and passed your module you need to arrange for an Instructor Competency Exam (ICE), and practicum hours (if required). This can be done by reaching out to BCRPA and let them know you want to complete your ICE, and practicum.

⁵ To be hired as a certified instructor specializing in Yoga, Pilates, Zumba OR Older Adults, the candidate requires BOTH the successful completion of the respective BCRPA specialty module PLUS the BCRPA Group Fitness specialty module. No specific order of completion is required, but both are necessary.

⁶ Apply online on the City of Surrey Career Website surrey.ca/careers or drop your resume off in person at you local recreation centre.

⁷ If you have completed a 200 hour or 500 hour Yoga or Pilates program, the Group Fitness Certification is not required.

If you have any questions, visit your local recreation centre and connect with a fitness supervisor.
