Carried.

Chief Matheson presented the estimates of expenditures for his Department for the year 1925.

Com. Mackenzie said that he thought that White Rock should have a Police Constable the year around, but not necessarily on a straight salary, and that he would recommend to be retained on a small fee, and during the summer months to put on steady, and that a det. Sergeant be appointed for Cloverdale Station during the busy season. It was then moved ^{by Com Barton} that the following estimates be approved.

2. Police Constables at: $135 ⁰⁰ per Month	$3240.00
Chief Constable at 175 ⁰⁰ " "	$2100.00
White Rock & Arcecut	$1100.00
Magistrate's Salary	960.00
Lawyers Fees	600.00
Uniforms	300.00
Up keep of Cars	1000.00
Office Supplies	200.00

I recommend that W. Mortimer get a raise of salary of 10⁰⁰ per month.

Com. Mackenzie said he was in favor of passing
The Estimates with the exception of the item regarding White Rock Arsenic.
