SECTION 1: ACCOUNTABILITY

- 1.1 The City of Surrey is committed to providing an environment which is free from any form of Discrimination based on any of the prohibited grounds of discrimination under the B.C. Human Rights Code. In alignment with its values of integrity, innovation, service, teamwork and community, the City is responsible to provide an environment that is supportive of the dignity and self-esteem of all.
- 1.2 This Policy reflects the City's responsibility under the B.C. Human Rights Code to prevent Discrimination in the Workplace.
- 1.3 The City of Surrey is committed to providing education and training to all Employees and Elected Officials about the Policy, and ensuring that procedures for complaint investigation and resolution are implemented and followed.
- 1.4 All individuals are accountable for supporting an environment that is free from Discrimination for Employees, Customers, Visitors, Contractors, Volunteers, and Elected Officials.
- 1.5 Management Employees and Supervisors have additional accountability for ensuring a working environment where Discrimination and Harassment are not tolerated.
- 1.6 The City of Surrey communicates the commitment set out in this Policy.

SECTION 2: PURPOSES

The Purposes of the Human Rights Policy are:

- 2.1 To formalize the responsibility and commitment of the City of Surrey to ensure that all Employees, Elected Officials, Volunteers, Customers, Contractors and Visitors enjoy a workplace and service environment that is free from Discrimination or Harassment, as defined by the Policy.
- 2.2 To establish that the City of Surrey promotes a work and service environment for Employees, Elected Officials, Volunteers, Customers, Contractors and Visitors free from Discrimination and Harassment.
- 2.3 To ensure that all Employees, Elected Officials and Volunteers understand what is meant by an environment that is supportive of the dignity and self-esteem for all and free from Discrimination or Harassment, and know their responsibilities to ensure that such an environment is provided and sustained at the City of Surrey. Under this Policy, it is understood that employees who witness Discrimination or Harassment in the Workplace should report it.

- 2.4 To provide appropriate processes and procedures to deal with complaints in an effective and timely manner and remedy situations when a violation of the Policy occurs.
- 2.5 Nothing in this Policy should be construed as depriving Union Employees covered under the collective agreement(s) of CUPE Local 402, CUPE Local 402-02 and IAFF Local 1271 of their rights under those collective agreement(s). This Policy works in conjunction with any language on Discrimination or Harassment contained in the collective agreement(s).

SECTION 2: DEFINITIONS OF DISCRIMINATION AND HARRASSMENT

- 3.1 Discrimination refers to adverse differential treatment of individuals or groups that is related to a prohibited ground of discrimination under the B.C. Human Rights Code. It may be intentional or unintentional and often stems from prejudice and/or stereotypes of others. It can result in one individual or group having an advantage over another individual or group. Discrimination can cause an individual or group to be excluded from activities that they have the right to be included in.
- 3.2 The prohibited grounds of Discrimination as set out in the B.C. Human Rights Code are race, colour, ancestry, place of origin, political belief, religion, marital status, family status, physical or mental disability, sex, gender identity or expression, sexual orientation, age and conviction of a criminal or summary conviction offence that is unrelated to employment or intended employment. Discrimination as defined by this Policy is specific to conduct which is prohibited by the B.C. Human Rights Code. Other types of conflict which do not fall within the definition of Discrimination are provided for in other City of Surrey policies. Harassment is a type of Discrimination. Harassment is defined as:
 - Unwelcome conduct, or conduct that is of such a nature that it would be reasonable to assume that it is unwelcome;
 - That is based on or related to one of the prohibited grounds set out in Section 3.1 of this Policy; and
 - That detrimentally affects the work environment or how accommodation, services or facilities are provided or leads to adverse job-related consequences for the victim.
- 3.3 Sexual Harassment is a type of Discrimination on the prohibited ground of sex.
- 3.4 Examples of Harassment include but are not limited to:
 - Remarks, jokes, innuendos or other comments or gestures regarding someone's body, appearance, physical or sexual characteristics or clothing;
 - Display, distribution or storage of offensive or derogatory pictures, cartoons or other material (including material on computers, social media or e mail);
 - Unwelcome questions or sharing of information regarding a person's sexuality or sexual activity, religious activities or disability status;
 - Sexual solicitation or advance that is unwelcome;
 - Unwanted physical touching; and
 - Favouring, or appearing to other employees to be favouring, a subordinate employee in exchange for sexual favours.

- 3.5 Harassment does not include legitimate job related actions performed in good faith by Supervisors and Management Employees such as work direction or assignment, performance appraisal, attendance monitoring and implementation of disciplinary or other corrective actions.
- 3.6 Retaliation for reporting or bringing forward a complaint of Discrimination or Harassment, or participating in the investigation of a complaint, in good faith, under this Policy is prohibited by this Policy. A separate complaint of Discrimination or Harassment can be made if an individual has been the subject of retaliatory behaviour for reporting or bringing forward a complaint of Discrimination or Harassment or participating in the investigation of a complaint. Retaliation may include, but is not limited to, penalizing an individual or subjecting them to adverse job consequences.

SECTION 4: APPLICATION OF POLICY

- 4.1 This Policy applies to all Employees, Elected Officials, Volunteers, Customers, Contractors and Visitors and covers conduct occurring where activities related to the enterprise of the City of Surrey or the Surrey Libraries occur including:
- At any facilities owned and/or operated by the City of Surrey;
 - At City-related social functions;
 - At work-related conferences or training sessions; and
 - During work-related travel.

SECTION 5: CONFIDENTIALITY

- 5.1 All processes under this Policy are conducted confidentially. This means that no one who is in any way involved with any process under this Policy, including Complainants and Respondents, is to disclose any information to anyone except as required for the conduct of Informal Complaint Resolution Processes under Section 7 or Formal Complaint Resolution Processes under Section 8 or for the purpose of making a decision respecting a complaint or as required by law.
- 5.2 The Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act governs rights to privacy and access to information with respect to any complaint.
- 5.3 If any individual knowingly discloses confidential information collected under this Policy contrary to the Policy and without proper authorization, that individual could be subject to disciplinary consequences up to and including termination of employment.

SECTION 6: SERIOUS MISCONDUCT

- 6.1 Discrimination and Harassment are serious misconduct. An Employee who is found to be responsible for Discrimination or Harassment may be disciplined up to and including termination of employment for cause.
- 6.2 A Customer, Visitor, Volunteer or Contractor who breaches this Policy may be temporarily or permanently denied access to the City of Surrey's facilities and/or services.
- 6.3 In the event that an Elected Official is alleged to be in breach of this Policy, the complaint will be referred by the City Solicitor to an independent external Investigator who is experienced in human rights matters to investigate the matter and prepare a report. The Investigator will be retained as the City's legal counsel. The Investigator's report will be submitted directly to Mayor and Council. If a finding of a breach of the Policy has been made by the Investigator, the matter will then be referred to a third party facilitator experienced in mediating and facilitating human rights matters, who will review the situation and make appropriate recommendations.

- 6.4 An allegation of Discrimination or Harassment is an extremely serious matter. Complaints, including reports, which are investigated and determined to be false and malicious may lead to discipline or other negative consequences for the individual who files the complaint. A false and malicious complaint is a complaint brought forward in bad faith and for improper reasons. A good faith complaint brought forward for proper reasons, which is found to not have merit, is not a false and malicious complaint.

SECTION 7: INFORMAL COMPLAINT RESOLUTION PROCESS

- 7.1 In developing its informal complaint resolution process, the City places emphasis on personal responsibility, the long term nature of workplace relationships, and the concept that all individuals make mistakes. It must be understood that the City will not tolerate Discrimination or Harassment.
- 7.2 If you believe that your comments or actions may have amounted to Discrimination or Harassment, seek clarity from the other party and apologize.
- 7.3 If you feel you have been the subject of Discrimination or Harassment and you are comfortable discussing the issue directly with the other person, clearly tell the person that his/her behaviour is unwelcome and request that he/she stop immediately. If the complaint is dealt with to your satisfaction, the issue is considered to be resolved.

Employee Complaints:

- 7.4 If the complaint is not resolved, or if you feel that you are unable to talk to the person about the behaviour, inform your immediate Supervisor about your complaint. Your Supervisor will assist you to resolve the complaint and, if the complaint is dealt with to your satisfaction, the issue is considered to be resolved. The Supervisor will record the resolution in writing and provide a copy of it to the Director, Human Resources.
- 7.5 If you do not feel comfortable approaching your Supervisor directly, or the Supervisor is part of the complaint, you should report your complaint to one of the following Designated Management Employees:
- General Manager, Finance;
 - Director, Human Resources; or
 - Senior Manager, Human Resources.

The City Manager may amend the Designated Management Employees from time to time.

- 7.6 The Designated Management Employee will set up a confidential meeting with you to discuss your complaint. You should be prepared to disclose all of the pertinent details relating to the complaint in the meeting. If you have kept written notes or documentation, these should be presented in the meeting. The Designated Management Employee will outline the options available to you for resolution of the complaint. You may have a shop steward, a friend or a Supervisor accompany you to the meeting or to any other step in the process where it is appropriate.

- 7.7 The Designated Management Employee will assist you with the informal resolution of the complaint. Any resolution will be recorded in writing and placed in a confidential file kept by the Director, Human Resources.

Customer, Visitor, Contractor, Volunteer or Elected Official Complaints:

- 7.8 If you are a Customer, Visitor, Contractor, Volunteer or Elected Official and you believe that you have the subject of Discrimination or Harassment, you should contact the City Manager's office to access the process for resolution of your complaint. The complaint will be referred by the City Manager to one of the Designated Management Employees.

If the complaint is not received in written form, the City will confirm the complaint in writing to the Complainant. Such confirmation will include a statement detailing the specifics of the complaint. The Complainant will be provided with reasonable time to respond to the written confirmation of the complaint, but subsequently the written confirmation of the complaint will serve as the basis for the complaint resolution process.

- 7.9 With the objective of effective resolution of complaints from Customers, Visitors, Contractors, Volunteers or Elected Officials, all such complaints will be initially processed through an informal investigation. An informal investigation will include a confidential meeting with a Designated Management Employee to discuss the complaint and appropriate fact-finding actions, which will include the Complainant and the Designated Management Employee, and the General Manager (or his/her designate) with accountability for the identified respondent(s). In appropriate circumstances the City may require the Complainant and Respondent to participate in a mediation meeting with the City Manager or other City personnel. If the Complainant declines to fully participate in a required mediation, the City shall be under no obligation to progress to the formal complaint phase provided for in Section 8 of this Policy.

Complaints against Designated Management Employees, Senior City Managers and Elected Officials:

- 7.10 Complaints against Designated Management Employees, Senior City Managers and Elected Officials must be directed to the City Solicitor who, in consultation with the Director, Human Resources, will be responsible for implementing an appropriate resolution process. (The Director, Human Resources will not be consulted by the City Solicitor respecting any complaint brought against the Director, Human Resources.) Complaints against the City Solicitor must be directed to the Director, Human Resources who, in consultation with the City's external legal counsel, will be responsible for implementing an appropriate resolution process.

SECTION 8: FORMAL COMPLAINT RESOLUTION PROCESS

- 8.1 If, in the City's view, the informal complaint resolution process does not resolve the complaint, the complaint will be referred to the Director, Human Resources, for formal resolution through an investigation. The investigation may be handled directly by the Director, Human Resources, or his/her designated Investigator.
- 8.2 The Complainant will be required to describe the incidents, identify witnesses and name the Respondent(s). The Respondent(s) will be provided with sufficient information to be able to respond to the allegations. The Investigator will give the parties the opportunity to respond to the allegations and present evidence necessary in support of their positions.

- 8.3 The Investigator may prepare a confidential fact-finding report that, at a minimum, describes the allegations and evidence of the parties and the witnesses, determines whether the Policy has been violated, and may provide recommendations with respect to potential outcome. The Investigator may provide the final report to the Director, Human Resources or his/her designate.
- 8.4 Although there are no firm deadlines, the Investigator will be required to conduct the investigation as expeditiously as possible and in the normal case would be expected to make a determination within 60 days of being retained to conduct the investigation.
- 8.5 The Investigator may be an internal or external person who will have experience in the conduct of human rights investigations. The Investigator will conduct a thorough, fair and confidential investigation of the complaint. The Investigator will interview the Complainant, the Respondent and any Witnesses that may have relevant information.
- 8.6 The City reserves the right to retain external legal counsel to conduct the investigation and provide a privileged and confidential report to the Director, Human Resources.
- 8.7 If the Complainant withdraws the complaint, the City may continue with the formal investigation of the complaint.
- 8.8 Upon receipt of the confidential investigation report from the Investigator, the Director, Human Resources, in consultation with appropriate City personnel, will determine the appropriate corrective action.
- 8.9 All conduct that is found to constitute a breach of this Policy will be addressed by attempting to remedy the harm caused and to prevent further harm. The decision of the City of Surrey in this process is final and not subject to internal appeal.
- 8.10 A Union Employee retains the right to file a grievance under the Collective Labour Agreement at any time respecting a complaint brought under this Policy.
- 8.11 A decision made by the City of Surrey in this process does not affect the right of an individual to seek recourse under the B.C. Human Rights Code.
