QUESTIONS/ANSWERS

- Q1. How will the warranty for the plants is going to work? What will fall on our plate?
- A1. Warranty of plant stock is not the responsibility of the planting Contractor. The Contractor is responsible for proper storage, care, and transportation of trees upon delivery to their yard up until planting. The Contractor will be responsible for replacing any trees damaged during storage and transportation.
- Q2. How is the plant's watering going to happen?
- A2. Storage irrigation may be needed during unseasonably warm dry spring months up until trees are planted. Watering after planting is not the responsibility of the Contractor.

All Addenda will become part of the Contract Documents.
