- The study is not about traffic volume but rather control of “over the speed limit” traffic flow.
- There are four intersections of particular concern requiring traffic calming measures:
  - 128 Street and 16 Avenue
  - 130 Street and Marine Drive
  - 128 Street and 24 Avenue
  - 124 Street and 24 Avenue
- Some traffic calming measures to be considered are raised speed humps, signage, traffic circles, and crosswalks.
- In addition, sidewalks are required at certain locations as well as “border” signage (“Welcome to Ocean Park”).

- A CD of the PowerPoint presentation was presented to the City Clerk for distribution.
- The RCMP provided a courtesy speed watch program on October 16, 2004 and it was noted that many vehicles were well over the speed limit.
