A. DELEGATIONS1. Christine Buttkus, Executive Director, and John Lawson, Board Chair
SurreyCares Community Foundation

File: 0550-20-10

The delegation provided a PowerPoint update regarding new activities and plans benefitting the non-profit sector and residents in partnership with donors and highlighted the following information:

- SurreyCares is Surrey's only community foundation. Its vision is a giving, community and its mission is to inspire donors, grow endowments and investing in people. 2021 and 2022 was a strong year for SurreyCares, as its portfolio grew by 12.85%, resulting in the ability to give additional grants.
- SurreyCares stewards a number of funds for various community organizations, such as designated funds, flow through and managed funds, and bursary and scholarships. In addition, SurreyCares awards numerous community grants to a variety of recipients.
- SurreyCares strategic priorities are to ensure sustainability and growth through fund development, developing people and improving their connection to the community, and developing meaningful connections through intentional communication and strategic promotions.
